THE BOXERS & WRESTLERS LOSE MEET TO M.A.A.A. ATHLETES

SEVERAL GOOD BOUTS WERE STAGED BY THE CONTESTANTS LAST NIGHT

MEET CLOSES SEASON FOR MCGILL

MCGILL MEN HAD NOT SUFFICIENT TIME TO PREPARE FOR BOUTS
AND IN CONSEQUENCE WERE DEFEATED

The third annual meet between the McGill B.W. & F. Club and the boxers and wrestlers of the M.A.A.A.
was held Saturday evening at the M.A.A.A. gymnasium, resulting in a win for the latter by four decisions to one.

Immediately after their contests in Kingston at the Intercollegiate meet the McGill men broke training. Six weeks dieting and training with the gruelling contests they were called upon to go through in Kingston had about satisfied them for the season.
An attempt was made to have the M.A.A.A. meet cancelled, but it was found that all arrangements had been made and tickets sold. It was then decided to have all exhibition bouts.
At the last moment, however, for some unknown reason, this was changed and it was decided to have contests in five weights, the middle and heavyweight wrestling and the light, welter and middle weight boxing. The expected happened, and the three boxing events, with the heavyweight wrestling were won by the M.A.A.A.

Another season the M.A.A.A. meet will be held sometime before the Intercollegiate contests for it is felt that the season should come to an end with the latter event, so that the men can turn their attention to other things.

One unfortunate incident of Saturday night's meet occurred during the welter-weight boxing. While Montgomery and Eakin were fighting, the most strenuous bout of the evening, the M.A.A.A. instructor and seconds

APPOINTED TO HOCKEY TITLE CHAIR WON BY AT DALHOUSIE THE FRESHIES

ASSUMES NEW POST IN FALL

HONOURS GO TO FIRST YEAR

MR. TODD WILL LEAVE MCGILL

Mr. James E. Todd, M.A., who at present holds a lectureship in history at this University, has been appointed to the chair of history and economies of Dalhousie University by the Board of Governors of the latter institution.

Mr. Todd is a young Scotsman with an unusually brilliant scholastic record. He took his degree from Edinburgh with first class honors in history in 1907. Altogether Mr. Todd spent five years in Edinburgh university and during this period won the following distinctions: The Vans Dunlop Scholarship in history; and the Ritchie scholarship; the Gladstone memorial prize, and the Merchant company's prize in political economy.
In addition to various medals and class distinctions.

Proceeding to Balliol college, Oxford, Mr. Todd, was awarded an honorary exhibition in history, and after two years' stay took a first class in the history honors school.

On leaving Oxford Mr. Todd became a successful applicant for the independent lectureship in economic history at Edinburgh university.
The testimonials from the men under whom he studied in Oxford are of a most unusual nature, ranking Mr.
Todd as one of the best men who had ever gone through his college. A. L.
Smith, fellow, tutor and senior dean of Balliol, ends a very appreciative testimonial by saying "he will one day be a great success as a professor, and a great influence."

After holding this position for two years, he resigned to accept a post at McGill; this latter he now resigns to accept the chair at Dalhousie. His work there will begin

OVERWHELMED SENIORS 11 TO 0

Despite the heavy snow storm on Saturday morning the final hockey match in the cup series was played off on the R.V.C. rink, whereby the Freshmen wrested the victory from the Seniors by a score of 11-0.

Owing to the agility of the freshmen forwards the play was continually around the Senior goal, and it was due to the excellent work of the Senior defence that the score was not a larger one.

Combination play was conspicuous by its absence but brilliant individual play and clever stick handling were shown by E. Ellison and M.
Muir.

Towards the end of the first half,
W. Mount was forced to retire owing to an injury received from the stick of an over-zealous freshe.

In the second half I. McCaw was put on the fence for body checking.
The line-up was as follows:

Freshmen	Seniors
E. Ellison.....centre	D. Duff
M. Muir.....right	M. Morrison
M. Curry.....left	W. Mount
A. McCormick.....point	S. Munro
G. Patterson.....goal	I. McCaw
M. Balch replaced I. McCaw in goal.

Mr. Todd was engaged in collaboration with other Oxford men in producing the third volume of "Oxford eral editorship of Professor Vinograd-off. He has lately undertaken to pre-

THE SLIDE RULE SLIPS DEFEATED MACDONALD SATURDAY

40 Minutes of Hard Play Resulted in Score of 2-1

(Special to the Daily)
As was announced in these columns on Saturday, the daring Slide Rule Slips boarded a Grand Trunk train at 1:30 p.m. the same day, and two hours later were engaged in fierce and prolonged battle on the Aggies ice.

Ten men went along and the dog, and no casualties were reported. The game was a little late in starting owing to the heavy fall of snow on the rink, but promptly at 3:30 Referee Cosgrave started the game.

Play was to consist of four 10-minute periods, and right at the start, Macdonald College forged ahead and put one past the Slip's goal-tend.

The puck went up and down the rink, a la Huntingdon style, for most of the first period, and the whistle blew for that period with the Aggies working hard, and in the lead by one to nothing.

During the interval, the Slips amused themselves by talking to the various 'queens' along the side-lines—some queens, too—but unfortunately, most of the social side of the interval was spoiled by the Manager driving the team into the shed, and talking to them. The only thing that would make the team work was a promise that the first man who scored a goal would get something pretty good. This had desired effect, and the Slide Rule operators climbed over the boards with determination in their eyes.

Play started off fast and furious, but no score came till the last quarter when the Slips suddenly rushed a couple by the Green and White goal-keeper, and full time whistle blew with the final score two to one for the Slips.

For Macdonald College, Smith put up a fine game at point, as did also Young, at rover; but the latter was in poor condition, and Walton, at left wing, put up a game scrap all the way through.

Owing to the fact that the Manager of the Slide Rule Slips still persists in withholding the names of his puck-chasers, no details of their play could be gained. He has promised, however, as soon as his team clashes with the 'Robert's Roughnecks', all will be made public, but political reasons render disclosure at this juncture, impossible.

Emmett and Cosgrave handled the game well, and everybody was very well satisfied with their work. The teams were:—

BREEZY WESTERNERS TO MEET IN UNION THIS EVENING

Will Hear Address on "The Western Spirit"

Tonight at eight sharp, the Western Club will meet in the McGill Union.

Prof. Stephen Leacock will deliver an address on "The Western Spirit" and this alone ought to be a curtain-raiser.

Refreshments will be provided, and the sum of a good speech and good eats is certain to draw a large crowd.

MORE GAMES PLAYED IN THE UNION BILLIARD TOURNAMENT

Laffan Defeats Crewdson but Loses in Turn to Hull

On Friday evening the Union witnessed a very exciting game in the billiard tournament. Laffan, the winner, defeated Crewdson by one point. The finish was very close, and when his score stood at 240 Laffan was nearly 20 points ahead. A couple of good breaks by Crewdson then placed his score at 249. After a few shots by both contestants, in which neither of them scored, Laffan made a break of ten, thus winning the game.

The game was very even throughout, and as it was one of the last in the third round, attracted considerable attention.

On Saturday night Laffan then played Hull in the fourth round. Hull proved easily master of the situation winning by a comfortable margin.

Neither contestant played remarkably good billiards, but Hull played consistently throughout, and should prove a strong contestant for the final honors.

ENTRY LIST IS NOW OPEN FOR THE POOL TOURNAMENT

Conditions Similar to the Billiard Contest

The entry list for the pool tournament in the Union is now open and 'Scheeziks' says he is ready for all comers.

The conditions will be the same as held in the Billiard Tournament, now almost finished, and the entry fee will be fifty cents.

Men are requested to enter up as soon as possible.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES

Western Reserve.—D. R. Hanna, publisher of the 'Cleveland Leader', has offered $10,000 annually to the University if it will institute a School of Journalism.

Washington.—The Washington baseball team has recently received an invitation from the Meiji University of Japan to play a series of games there—the Japs will guarantee all expenses.

Illinois.—Indictments against eleven students of the University, charged with rioting and illegal voting, were quashed in the Champaign county court of Illinois this week.

Dartmouth.—Dartmouth is to have a fire brigade. Already a captain has been elected, who is R. L. Bennett, a Senior, and who was captain of the University football team last fall.

Missouri.—The co-eds of the University of Missouri are going to play baseball. The game is to be played according to the rules for men's baseball with the exception that a soft ball will be used. This is done so that nobody will be 'hurt'.

Michigan.—The University Band, which has the custom of giving open-air concerts in the spring on the campus, has been requested to discontinue them. Students who were studying in the library complained that the concerts interrupted them in their studies and the Michigan school heads decided that no student should be thus "interrupted".

MALE QUARTETTE WILL REPRESENT MCGILL AT NORTHFIELD

Preparations for Conference are Well Under Way

Preparations are now well under way for the sending to the Student Y.M.C.A. Conference at Northfield, one of the largest delegations that has ever gone from McGill. Everything possible is being done to see that this trip will be attended by the least inconvenience to the delegates, and the greatest success to Y.M.C.A. work at McGill.

One of the most attractive features of this Conference is the musical programme of its many religious and social meetings. In the summer of 1906 the McGill delegation had the entire charge of the musical arrangements at Northfield. Mr. Geo. V. Cousins, Law '10, occupied the position of official pianist, and the well known McGill quartette of that time consisting of Messrs Charlie Hall, Murray Brooks, John Saunders and Geo. Cousins, was recognized as the official Northfield Male Quartette. This year the Conference committee at Strathcona Hall is anxious to put McGill in a position to make a contribution to Northfield similar to that which was so much appreciated in the past. With that end in view a vocal quartette is being formed to accompany the delegation from old McGill.

Mr. W. Carlyle Goodwin, a former member of a class of Science, 1913, has just arrived from Chicago where he has been spending some time in the study of American Departmental store methods. Mr. Goodwin possesses a bass voice of rare quality, and has done a considerable amount of solo work in Y.M.C.A. circles, both in Montreal and in Chicago. McGill men will be glad to know that he is to make the Northfield trip and will take the low part in the quartette.

Applications have already been made for the parts of second tenor and a baritone, but the committee is still looking for a first tenor. None of these last named parts have been assigned as yet, and the committee requests that any one singing any one of these parts will communicate with Frank Common, secretary of the Northfield Committee. It is desirable that this quartette should be organized immediately in order that it shall be well trained before June 20th. Any students desiring to make the trip in this capacity, but who anticipate financial difficulties, or difficulties arising from the nature of or lack of their summer employment should confer with the secretary as it is quite possible that he may be able to be of some assistance in this matter.

THE LANDLADY REFUSES TO LET STUDENT SLEEP IN COLD

He is Therefore in a Quandary for the Present

His need and liking for the fresh air of out-doors has placed Cecil J. Tyrone, '16, in somewhat of an awkward position. It appears that his grandfather was a Hudson Bay Factor in the olden days, and spent the most of his time out of doors. His father was a land surveyor and he, too, has spent the better part of his life under canvas. For many years now, the son who is at present in college, has accompanied his father on his expeditions and has become acclimated to sleeping under canvas or the stars of heaven. When he first came to college he found the close confinement of the buildings irked him and that he could not sleep in-doors at night. He therefore moved his couch on to a balcony with a curtain wall and he has been sleeping there ever since. However, his landlady finds it chilly making up his bed these mornings, and has given him notice that he must either sleep in-doors or leave.

As a result, Cecil J. finds himself in somewhat of a quandary. However, he has had an inspiration. He intends to ask the authorities at Strathcona Hall if he can pitch a tent on the roof of that building, and as he is willing to pay handsomely for the privilege, they will no doubt be able to accommodate him.

The dyspeptic is apt to wonder if he didn't eat all the good things when he was a boy.

Even the man who feels that he was born to command might hesitate before marrying a suffragette.

Although he may not realize it, many a man is in luck because he isn't found out.

WILL NOT BE CANDIDATE FOR THE PRESIDENCY OF COUNCIL

Another Suggested Nominee Denies Reports Concerning Coming Election

Mr. A. K. Hugessen, of Law '14, when spoken to in connection with the report that he would be a candidate for the presidency of the Council, stated that he would not be a contestant for the office.

Mr. Hugessen said that even if there was a possibility of his being elected in the event of his being nominated he could not consider it, as he has already devoted one year to work on the Council, and feels that his studies will demand his undivided attention next year.

It is also currently reported that Mr. Roberts, who had withdrawn his nomination, has been urged to reconsider his action, and that he is considering the advisability of such a step.

TREMENDOUS SUCCESS ACHIEVED BY THE FRENCH CLUB

Presentation of Comedies Delights Audience

Between five and six hundred people were the guests of the French Club of McGill, when on Saturday, they represented in the R.V.C. two comedies before a distinguished audience, which included the French consul and several members of the faculty.

The proceedings were opened with "Un Caprice" a one-act comedy by Alfred de Musset. Prof. Du Roure filled splendidly the part of Mr. de Chavigny, while Mlle. Greterin starred in the role of Madame de Lery. Miss Seidler is also to be congratulated upon her interpretation of Mrs. de Chavigny; her part was a hard one and all the more so for a person not French speaking. Great pains were taken to present this play in its true "Louis Philippe" setting and the gowns of the ladies as well as Prof. du Roure's costume, were most appropriate. Miss Jamison gave two selections between the first and second play.

"L'Anglais tel qu'on le parle", a farce of Tristan Bernard, proved to be a tremendous success. Miss Morgan (Betty) was easily the star; her playing warrants a prophecy that she will shine in next year's senior play.

Mr. Hodgson's part was splendidly filled by Mr. Clash who seemed to make a perfect old English gentleman. Mr. Nicholson and Mr. Taylor also deserve great credit for the interpretations of their respective roles, the latter making an ideal husband, and the former a splendid police officer. Mr. Jenks must be congratulated on having made such a good hotel porter and Miss Racicot acceptably filled a part that was difficult to make interesting. Of the men Mr. Griffith proved the best, his gestures and postures being very French. He proved himself to be a born actor.

Last Saturday's entertainment will be long remembered, and will rank in our memory with the production of "La Cagnotte" in 1911, and "Le Voyage de Mr. Perrichin" in 1909.

CORNELL HAS STUDENT WHO LIVES ON 85 CENTS A WEEK

He Claims to Sustain Life Easily

According to reports, Cornell has a student who has made himself famous by living on 85 cents a week. This wonderful gentleman, Mr. R. P. Sanford, by name, is a member of the College of Agriculture, and says, much to the amazement of those who eke out an existence on $5 a week, that life can easily be sustained under 85 cent conditions.

Unfortunately, he has received a notice from the College authorities that he has been dropped on account of failure in mathematics.

It appears, then, that 85 cents' worth of food a week is not quite enough to develop a mathematical genius, although it might otherwise be enough to keep a little heat in the body.

It might be interesting to know what the conditions are under which he dines and wines—not to say anything of sleep—on 12 cents per week.

The highest Art lies in the concealing of Art. Thus your first impression of the "Male Attired" man is one of virility, distinction, perfect taste.

The clothes themselves you scarcely notice, so perfectly do they express the man within. And that's the summit of good dressing.

Why not utilize this Art of "Male Attire" to build up your own prestige?

THE BOXERS AND WRESTLERS

allowed their enthusiasm to override their discretion, and persisted in coaching their man throughout. This was strongly resented by 'Runt' Davies and the other McGill seconds and it looked for a time as though the fight might not be restricted to the men in the ring. The affair blew over, however, and in subsequent events the offence was not repeated.

BOXING

In the lightweight contest, H. Mais was matched against H. Beveridge, one of the fastest light weight amateur boxers in Canada. For two rounds Mais held his own, ducking under the deadly right of his opponent, and landing his left frequently. In the third round Beveridge found his mark with two of his right-hand whallops and the bout was stopped, the decision going to Beveridge.

In the welterweight boxing Montgomery and Eakin put up the fastest and most strenuous bout of the evening. Both men are very heavy hitters and assumed the style of mixing and in-fighting from the start. For two rounds the fight seemed to be all Montgomery's, but with the third round superior condition began to tell. An extra two minute round was ordered and the decision on this round went to the M.A.A.A. man.

In the middleweight boxing, Crosley who has not been in the ring for four weeks and whose ankle is still in such condition that he had to enter the ring with it bound up and box flat-footed throughout, was matched against A. McMurtry, one of the M.A.A.A. stars. He was handicapped from the outset, but put up a splendid fight. In the second round he was brought to the floor by a right to the jaw, for the count of four. He came back very strongly however and the third round was fast and clever. Both men fought a clever, open, sparring game, showing their science to great advantage. The decision went to McMurtry.

A relay contest was boxed between Turner E. St. Pierre and Heasley. Two exhibitions were boxed between L. Binnore and L. O'Brien, and S. Hartley and Ken. Barwick.

WRESTLING

In the middleweight wrestling, Tucker of McGill, was matched against McPhail, who, though a McGill man, wrestled for M.A.A.A., in order to provide a contest. For the first six minutes the bout was very even, both men playing a cool, heady game. In the second six minutes and the last three, Tucker showed more aggressiveness and was on top most of the time. There were no falls, but the decision went to Tucker.

In the heavyweight wrestling, McLean, the McGill boy, fought with Francis Eagan, the former amateur heavy weight of the Dominion, for the full fifteen minutes, and it was only on the work of the last three minutes that Eagan showed superiority enough to warrant his obtaining the decision. McLean has never wrestled better than he did in this contest, he is improving steadily and with another season's practice will be hard to beat. Eagan secured the decision through the greater skill and science he displayed. Three exhibition bouts were wrestled: Audette vs. Nelson, Davies vs. Hughes, and Ford vs. Trenholme. These were all very clever exhibitions of the game, but no decisions were given.

The evening's programme of contests was supplemented by vocal solos excellently rendered by Messrs Duckett and Weldon, and by piano solos by Mr. McQueen.

In boxing the officials were: referee, Jas. Taylor; judges, C. S. Virtue and Dr. Harvey. In wrestling; referee, Sidney Smith; judges, Doran and Hughes.

THINGS THEATRICAL

THE RIGHT PRINCESS

Maude Fealy, in John Cort's emotional drama, "The Right Princess," will be seen at the Princess Theatre for five nights and Wednesday and Saturday matinees, commencing Tuesday, March 4th. Miss Fealy was formerly leading woman for Sir Henry Irving, succeeding Ellen Terry in that position. She has surrounded herself with a capable company of English players.

The play is based upon the principal that "Good is the Only Power." The plot is unique, a decided departure from the beaten paths of playdom. The final tableaux of the first act, "The Promise of Light for Tomorrow," discloses the heroine standing in the full glare of the setting sun, while the young English peer, whose mental development has been retarded by a fall in his boyhood, rouses at the foot of the stairs below her. The promise is so effective, so prophetic, that the audience generally insists upon many curtain calls.

The story of the play deals with the efforts, hitherto unavailing, of a noble English family to have the reason of the heir to the title restored. Medicine and surgical treatment have failed to produce any effect, when the niece of the housekeeper pays a visit to the home and brings promise of a cure. She is persuaded to devote all her time to the young man and finally causes the restoration of his reason. Then he falls in love with her and wins her in spite of the efforts of some of the members of his family to prevent the marriage. Besides Miss Fealy the cast includes James Durkin, Howard Cridland, Joseph Dailey, Henry Douglas, Teresa Dale, Julia Hanchett, Marcia Harris and Ethel Lodge.

GOOD VARIETY BILL

For talent and variety next week's programme at the Orpheum Theatre should be hard to beat. The two chief sketches are comedies that should interest all, being subjects of every day talk, namely, "The police charges in New York and the question that is beginning to loom up larger and larger every day in Montreal—"Sufragettism"; "The System", a stirring tale of the underworld of New York with the author in the leading role, assisted by a talented company of eighteen. Many tales and plays have been written since the recent charges in New York, but few have that human interest that Taylor Granville struck when he wrote "The System".

It is in three scenes, the first a police station with the usual scenes at night in a station of the "Tenderloin", the second a room in a tenement house, and the third the outside of the tenement. The playlet has a great plot, which ends with a great surprise to all who witness it and to tell you would spoil to a certain extent a very interesting portion of the playlet.

Hoey and Lee, two Hebrew comedians, have some new songs and parodies which they sing and tell in an inimitable way.

Franklyn Ardell and Company will appear in the laughable farce, "The Suffragette". The stump speech between the suffragette and the candidate, who is putting up against her at the election, is a feature of the act and supplies a good deal of the comedy of which there is barrels full. Caesar Nesi is a singer who is said to possess the most remarkable voice in vaudeville.

The Davis Family have a startling aerial act, in which some very thrilling feats are performed.

Chick Sales will appear in Character Studies from Life. Other acts will complete the programme.

MISS HORNIMAN ASSISTS UNIVERSITY SETTLEMENT

The many supporters and friends of the University Settlement will feel gratified to learn that the work of the Settlement has been aided to the extent of six hundred and fifty dollars, as a result of the Benefit performances recently given by the Horniman Company now playing at His Majesty's.

Chiefly encouraging is the immense amount of enthusiasm that has been aroused over this comparatively new form of philanthropic endeavour.

The new home of the Settlement was formally opened on Wednesday by the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, His Royal Highness went through the whole building and seemed much interested in every phase of the Settlement activity. He evinced his pleasure at the remarkable progress that has been made. Autograph photographs of their Royal Highnesses were sent to the Settlement after their visit.

The Building of all the Houses, the Mills, the Bridges and the Ships, and the accomplishment of all other great works which have rendered man civilized and happy have been done by the savers, the thrifty; and those who have wasted their resources have always been their slaves.

TURKISH CIGARETTES

Have you ever tried to smoke a pipe or cigar?

But, you found them unsatisfactory, didn't you?—found that they were strong, and wouldn't draw properly.

Because you've had these experiences, is no reason why you can't enjoy the pleasure of smoking.

You didn't take tobacco in the proper form—you should smoke MURAD Cigarettes.

MURAD Cigarettes, although a mild smoke, have a rich, full, delicate, distinctive flavor.

Why not try a package to-day? —10 for 15 cents.
